

James E. Landis

August 5, 1969 - February 13, 2018

James E. Landis, 48, of Geneva passed away Tuesday, February 13, 2018. He was born on August 5, 1969 in Oceanside, California. Jim was an amazing artist in many mediums. He was a giving man, and enjoyed spending time with his son. He attended Okeechobee High School and graduated from ITT Orlando with a degree in computer engineering. He was a very accomplished technology engineer and writer. He had several technical articles published in a magazine related to his field (Corporate Tech Decisions EH Publications). He was awarded the InfoComm peoples choice for Greene county emergency operations center (EOC). He was a co-leader and mentor of students that participated in the Ace Mentoring Program. He was an integral part in designing many buildings and their technology systems in the Orlando area and around the world, including site wide audio/video for the Orlando Eye.

Jim is predeceased by his mother, Melody Hardwick, and his great-grandmother, Thelma Chapman. He is survived by his wife, Laura L. Landis; son, Gage E. Landis; sister, Shari Hanes; and sister, Mindy Arnesen.

Services will be held privately at a later date.

“Thank you” to Jim for helping and advising my son, Michael “Seuss”, as he tries making his way through the music world. It had nothing to do with work, and everything to do with their shared musical interests. That's just part of who Jim was.

“ To Shari and the rest of the family i send my prayers because I can not be there for you due to my health. I do not travel beyond a 50 mile range anymore. I am so sorry for you all as I know death is hard to take especially if you do not know what caused it. All my love and prayers dad and carol. Love in christ.
