

James Robert Lewis

May 15, 1946 - June 27, 2020

James Robert Lewis, 74, of Orlando, Florida passed away on June 27, 2020. He was born on May 15, 1946 in Grandview, Washington. James is survived by his wife, Rubiela Lewis; son, James Lewis, Jr.; daughters, Brenda Miller and Adriana Spencer; and grandchildren, Jasmine, Christian, Kaylie, Zach, Ashley, and Luke.

Jim was an SP5 Sergeant in the Army who served three tours in the Vietnam conflict as an Engineer. Using his military training, he served for the Panama Canal Commission for over 20 years and retired as a Drill Boat Master Engineer. He adored classic cars, the Plymouth Fury being his favorite, watching Star Trek, and listening to Elvis Presley. He also loved sailing, fishing, spending time with his family, and absolutely spoiling his grandchildren.

“ James Lewis was a loving father and husband. He was an excellen neighbor while we lived in Cardenas. He was a hardworking man who did a lot for the Panama Canal and its functioning.

My deepest condolences to Rubiela, Adriana, Brenda, and family.

Rest in Peace Jim Lewis

“ Jim Lewis loved his family very much, had a great work ethic, worked hard to achieve his goals. He was a kind and great host. He retired from the Panama Canal. His job demanded focus and great decision making for the safety of others, safety of the canal itself, and operation of the canal. That says a lot about James Lewis!

Our condolences to Rubiela, Adriana, Brenda, and family.

May you rest in peace dear Jim

Love,

Tracy, Julia, Edward, Fernando, and Leslye
