

Jason Alexander Danek

March 17, 1978 - January 2, 2017

Jason Alexander "Jake" Danek, 38, a long time resident of Orlando, Fla., passed away Monday, January 2, 2017.

Born in Hinsdale, Illinois on March 17, 1978, he moved with his family to Orlando when he was four years old. He attended Deerwood Elementary School, Liberty Middle School, was a 1996 graduate of Colonial High School and attended Valencia Community College, Orlando. Through the years, he worked as a chef for several Orlando area restaurants.

Jake played the tuba in the Colonial High School band. He received his First Communion and Confirmation at Redeemer Lutheran Church, Winter Park, Fla.

As a youth, he played Little League Baseball and was a Cub Scout and Boy Scout who earned many merit badges. When he was older, he enjoyed watching football and baseball. He was a huge Cubs fan and was more than delighted when they won the 2016 World Series of Baseball.

Jake was preceded in death by brother, Daniel S. Danek, uncle Larry W. Pardon and recently, uncle, Stanley M. Danek (Carmela).

Jake's cremains will be buried at a later date in Oakwood Cemetery, Dixon, Ill., near his brother and paternal grandparents. Please contact the family directly for further information.

Jake is survived by his parents, George J. and Joyce Pardon Danek; two brothers, David G. Danek and Geoffrey G. Danek, both of Orlando; one sister, Amanda M. Danek (Drew), of St. Cloud, Fla.; one nephew, Zachary C. Shreffler, of St. Cloud; as well as four uncles, John P. Danek (Carol) of Rock Island, Ill.; Charles M. Danek and Thomas A. Danek, both of Dixon, Ill.; Robert E. Pardon (Sandi) of West Chicago, Ill.; one aunt, Bette Danek Hertz (Bob) of Boulder, Colorado; and nine Danek-related first cousins and their families. He also leaves behind many treasured friends, especially childhood buddies, Allen and Mike.
