

Jeanot St Hilaire

August 13, 1955 - March 9, 2025

Jeanot St Hilaire (69yo), a beloved friend, husband, and father from Belle Glade, FL, entered into rest on March 9, 2025. Born August 13, 1955, in Haiti to Elcius St Hilaire and Sainmira Bien Aime. Jeanot was always loving, caring, and selfless. His friends and family describe him as incredibly giving, family-oriented, and outgoing. He traveled a lot and loved seeing all parts of the World. Jeanot had multiple children whom he loved and cared for dearly. When away, he'd speak to his children daily through phone calls, voice messages, and video calls while also exchanging pictures. Jeanot could make anyone laugh, he was a hilarious jokester and a great storyteller. He loved playing dominos and watching the news; his favorite food was Haitian porridge, known as Labouyi. He was a man with great style. His favorite shoe brand was Jordans, and he loved to wear gold chains and hats. Jeanot was always down to have a good time, whether sitting in his car listening to his favorite music loudly or being with his friends telling jokes. Jeanot had many obstacles in his life. He was an immigrant who worked many hard jobs and barely spoke English in his early years. However, he pushed through those obstacles, learned multiple languages, became a citizen, and created a huge community of people who loved him immensely. His passing impacts so many of us. We hurt knowing he has left us, but we understand that the lord has called him home, so all we can do now is live until we see him again. You are immensely loved, dear Jeanot. May you rest along the Lord warm and comfortably.
