“ So sorry to hear about Jeff's passing. We were 2nd cousins, never really close, he was 5 years older than I and we lived about 100 miles apart. But I saw him many times over the years at family gatherings, and his smile and sunny personality always brightened things up. Love and best wishes to loved ones.

“ I remember I was about 14 or 15 & my sister Janet was working 3-11 shift @ Bayhore Hospital I was minding both Jeffrey & Jeanmarie. I made dinner for Jeff before I left for the evening. The pork chops caught on fire in the oven so I put the fire out with baking soda. I called Janet because dinner was ruined & I didn't know what to do. Janet told me just wash them off & stick them back in the oven. The one thing about a Jeff is that it didn't matter dinner was made so he ate it!

He also taught each one of us girls to drive. Down Scenic drive he took us whether we were ready or not! I will never forget that!

The most I remember was when my sister passed away & how devastated he was. He made us promise then to bury him with my sister but time changes everything I hope you are happy up there with my sister Janet.

You lived a good life after Janet & Gale was and still is a very good wife to you and our precious Jeffrey. I know Jeanmarie & Jeffrey will miss you but you are in a better place not suffering. God Bless you Jeffrey Charles Cieslik!

Great memories are beautiful and comforting. I could hear Janet's voice as I read the story. My peace is knowing they are reunited in Heaven.

“ Jeff was a good man, a good husband To my sister and a good brother-in-law to me. He always made me feel comfortable in his presence. It was so sad to see him become so confused and scared. He fought til the end, worried about his children. But no matter what was going on you could always make him calm and smile with a bowl of ice creme. He will be missed very much by his Barker family. Rest easy Jeff. 😞

“ I’ve known Jeff since grade school but our real friendship took hold long after HS graduation when he appeared in our neighborhood on a Sunday morning shortly after we bought our house on Glenmary Ave in Leonardo. He was there to pick up his good friend John Bellezza to play Softball. Little did I know how this friendship would blossom. John became my best friend over our years living across the street from each other. Jeff and his late wife Janet became an integral part of our neighborhood for a lifetime. We partied and played together and more importantly, Jeff made us all laugh together. Not a gathering would go by where his laughter didn’t fill the room or the yard. In the quiet moments, when it was just the 3 of us, John, Jeff and I, were moments I treasure. A warm 100 yr old scotch that Jeff bought for John each Christmas, that John would dole out 1 ounce at a time. A friendship hard to describe but one based on love for each other. Janet passed away and all of Glenmary came to Jeff’s side. Then a few years later, Gale came into our lives and our neighborhood group and Jeff shared their lives with all of us. He was a man of many smiles, thoughts and opinions but always a laugh for all. He was missed when the family moved south but his visits to John was something I know John loved. Now they can tip a toast of scotch in heaven and keep God on his toes. After all, everyone knows God is a Notre Dame fan! God speed onto that great light my friend. Give John a kiss for me and don’t let him cheat you on his pours!

Russ. I had to reread this again. It still makes me cry Anna smile at the same time. I am so fortunate that you all included me in your very tight circle. Some of my greatest memories of Jeff are of being altogether with Glenmary.
