“ Jeff and I only knew each other a short time. After purchasing an instrument from him on Craigslist we started talking via text. We talked about music and guitars, and eventually life and the challenges that we both had shared. We lost touch with one another when I moved to Lake County, but he left an impression and I am saddened to find out about his passing in this way. I was actually looking him up to try and reconnect. Sincere condolences to his wife and family. I hope he is at peace and we meet again someday.

“ I don't have one occasion to share. Jeff has always been kind, sweet and considerate to me. I was always welcomed and cared for during my visits. Unusual for a mother-in-law to say something like this. I will always appreciate your sensitivity and your ability to make my visits comfortable. I'm proud to be your Linda Mom. We will meet again Son.

“ My best memories come from our days of fishing together, here in Taylor County. As with most brothers, everything is a contest and with both of us having pretty bad tempers, it wasn't uncommon for one of us to lose our tackle in the lake...courtesy of the other.

Rest easy my brother, we will meet and wet a line again one day.
