

Jeremy Tyler Semon

October 3, 1987 - July 2, 2017

Jeremy Tyler Semon born 10/03/87 died 7/02/17. He is survived by his mother Darla L. Qualls, his sister Amie Tucker, his twin sister Jessica Semon, brothers, Jacob Semon, & Brian Semon, his maternal grandparents Raymond & Joyce Qualls and several aunts, uncles, and cousins. Jeremy, a big kid at heart could always make you laugh. His fun loving attitude affected everyone he came into contact with. Always adventurous and outgoing, never allowed danger to sway him from doing anything he wanted whether a back flip out of a tree, deep sea fishing for Reds, or a long road trip on his Harley. He was loved and will be fondly remembered and missed by a vast number of family and friends.

“ I will always remember the moment I met you in 7th grade science class. From that moment on we became good friends. Even though you would poke me and follow me around to no end to just drive me crazy, I would do anything to just have one more poke from you, one more laugh with you. You will be loved and remembered by many.

~love Tammy

I will love you always and forever

~love always your annoying little friend (Keyarra)

You were a great friend, taught me many things. You were also an amazing gamer, and also taught me how to annoy my mom. I will miss you greatly.

~your friend Tristen

I hope you can rest peacefully now, I know you are in a better place. You were the coolest friend.

“ There are some many amazing things I could say about my cousin Jeremy because he was such an amazing person. I will cherish my memories I have with him. From riding on the Harley, water sliding as kids at Grandma Rita's, and our long late talks as he traveled the world in his big semi truck. Our family will forever miss and love you. ”

“ My brother was a fun loving guy! He enjoyed making people laugh almost as much as he loved being annoying! We shared a lot of awesome moments together that I will never forget! I, along with so many others, will miss him so very much.

Amie Tucker (Big Sister) - July 07, 2017 at 12:31 PM

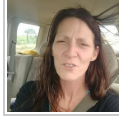

My heart is to torn to express the loss of my twin. Unconditionally loved and a bond that can never be broken, womb mates , my brother my friend we fought hard and loved hard.

“ I remember back flips, warmth and continual kindness. A little boy who locked doors and refused to open them, repeatedly stating " No". Lots of laughs, love and jokes. Love you Jeremy Tyler forever and always!

He has always been a source of pride, even when he didn't want to get his "chillin" ass off the couch and go to work. Thank God he grew out of that stage.. Jeremy loved to tease and make jokes, live life on the edge now and then, he laid his bike down to prevent killing a squirrel, Often too much to himself, not always much for conversation, but I never heard him say a mean thing to anyone, rarely lost his temper, and could still pull off a back flip, swim like a fish, and keep the young ups entertained for hours, even allowing them to style and curl his hair and post the results of his beauty parlor hair do to Facebook. Who could say he was not a hell of a good hearted person. I love you Jeremy to the moon and back. Always have, always will. Don't believe for a second we won't be together again son.
