“ Joey put together a big haircutting team from his school to serve at our 10th annual Thanksgiving for the homeless and poor at Lake Eola Nov16th. I'm so dumbfounded to learn of this heartbreaking news. May God receive him and give his loved ones strength.

“ I met you a while back in school.. I just moved to Florida not even a year ago and when we found out we was both from Holyoke, we had an instant connection! We’d laugh and talk about Growing up out there. I’ll never forget when We left on break without you and you called me a “flatleaver” boy that had me laughing for days! Then you started cutting AJs hair and he had such a great time with you, he refused to let anyone else cut his hair! You was always showing off your baby boy to all of us at school and now I’m gonna miss all of that... but I will remember all the laughs we had and your bear hugs. My son is super sad as well and says he Will always remember you. As we all will! Watch over your baby boy. We all love and miss you dearly!

“ As a kid you always had a smile on your face you were a kind sweet child, I did not know you as well when you got older cause you moved to florida but you and your brother always stopped by our house whenever you were in MA. I still saw your sweet smile as you grew and your kindness. You may not have had an easy life but that did not stop you from being from being kind to others and from the things I have read that your freinds and family have posted you were so loved by everyone who's life you came into that is a great thing. You will forever be remembered.

“ I miss you so much big brother. Crazy, every time I'd feel hopeless, I'd receive a call from you telling me you loved me and made sure I was good. That's honestly the main thing that replays in my head. You were angel sent bro.

“ You wont be forgotten. You were one of a kind and we all agree it's to soon. I will never forget how you always advised me to be strong, to go after my dreams, goals and to never fall for the lies these guys tell me out here, and to ALWAYS put God first. Even though I failed at those things at time you still loved me and didnt look at me different and I you. I'm so glad for what we had even if things didnt work out but that I got to experience your heart. You will be missed. We love you Joey Arroyo always and forever.

“ My sweet angel, What i would do to hug you one last time to tell you how much i love you and how proud i am of you. You had such a loving caring soul. A huge heart that you carried with all that strength you saw the light in every situation. The thought of this being true just tightens up my chest my eyes get watery. But baby boy you will live forever within us. The memories will never fade. I love you i always have and i forever will. The same way i rode for you ima stick by TJ and Maleena i promise you this. We are family through thick and thin. Our blood continues to run through them. Xoxo May you rest in Paradise
