“ I thank God that I had the opportunity to know Jonathan. He was a stand up person shining his light against the cruelties of the world. It is a rare thing to meet someone like this and his family radiates what he lived! My family and I are so blessed to carry such priceless memories with him! May God heal his family, he will be deeply missed!

“ I will always remember the loving, caring, hardworking man that you were. You always went above and beyond for us. You did everything to make sure we were taken care of, protected and felt loved...I will forever remember all the good times. Thank you for spending the rest of you life with us...Ill never forget the sound of you voice, your laugh, your smile! I know that you're dancing in the sky now...Till we meet again my sweet angel...love you tiger! lol....ill never stop calling you that!!! te amo! mi gran amor!!!
