I am very lucky to have two father in laws. This man here has been in my life 13 years. He loved me from day one. Cheered me on through 2 degrees and has always believed in me and thought I set the sun. He also informed me I should be a lawyer bc I can argue better than he. He also could never figure out how In my 20's I could eat so much and never get fat. 😭 He has loved both my children and my nephew as if they were all his grandchildren. I've had so many good talks with him. He is a very smart perceptive man. He knows so much more than he lets on. I find myself without words and only tears and prayers. This man here has been a huge part of my life for 13 years. My Anglada family could use prayer. Joe, need prayers. I don't believe he's in pain and I'm thankful for that. Pray for Comfort, strength and prayers that we can all be at peace. I love you ❤️ joe

You can tell a lot about a man by his family. Everyone in the Anglada family that I have had the pleasure to meet has shown me that he was as great man. He will surely be missed

My condolences to Joe's family. Working with Joe was never dull. He loved his practical jokes and we had some of the best pot luck lunches. He loved his family and life. Joe, you will be missed.

Joe, we will miss you. Our greatest connection is we share a grandchild. And we also shared many life experiences . We loved our animated conversations, and we know you couldn't talk without using your hands. Your intelligence and passion kept us on the edge of our seats waiting for your next sentence. You were kind, helpful, and caring. You have definitely left a hole in the world with your departure, but we know Heaven welcomes you, and we'll see you again someday. Our thoughts, prayers, and love are with your family: Carmen, Joey, and Mike.
