“ Joey always made us feel so welcomed and the 4th of July he made it a special point and hollered for Carmen and I too hold on as he wiped the sweat to come and give us big ol hugs and tell us how great it was to see us and he loved us guys was his words. We didn't know him as well as a lot of u but I can't tell you what that meant to me then and how fortunate I feel to have that as my last memory. It was very special. Prayers to you guys and we love you all❤️

I met Joey and Jacky through a mutual friend when we were teenagers. Joey was the sweetest person, always joking and always had the biggest smile on his face every single time I saw him. His laugh and smile will forever live in my mind. He has shown what true love is through being the best dad he could be and the best husband he could be to Jacky. Nothing in this word can comfort the hurt that his family is going through but I can only say he was such a beautiful soul and his energy will live on forever. Love you Joey and I am thankful for knowing you for the last 2 decades. ❤️❤️❤️
