

Juan Antonio Fantauzzi Lebron

October 4, 1996 - September 23, 2024

Juan Antonio “Tony” Fantauzzi Jr., a beloved son, musician, and friend, left this world too soon, leaving behind a legacy of music, love, and kindness. Born on a warm afternoon in Guayama, Puerto Rico, on October 4, 1996, Tony entered life with a beat in his heart and rhythm in his soul. From the time he received his first drum set at the age of two, it was clear that music would be his lifelong companion. Growing up, Tony’s musical talents blossomed in church, where he played drums and guitar, offering his gift back to God with every beat and strum. His passion for worship music remained a central part of his life as he later became the Senior Musician at Refugio de Dios church in Florida. There, Tony’s love for music became his ministry, as he played drums and bass guitar with a dedication that inspired those around him. His music was more than just sound—it was his way of worship, of giving, and of connecting with his faith and community. In addition to his musical talents, Tony had a love for athletics and a strong spirit of discipline.

Taught by his father, Tony earned his second-degree black belt in Tae Kwon Do, an achievement that reflected both his commitment and the close bond he shared with his family.

His move to Florida at 17 brought new opportunities, and Tony pursued them with enthusiasm, whether it was through music or his passion for getting people moving as DJ TFantz, where he shared his energy and talent with all who listened.

But beyond his accomplishments, what truly defined Tony was his heart. His love for mentoring younger people and his unwavering support for his friends were the hallmarks of his character.

To know Tony was to know a friend who was always there, offering kindness, wisdom, and a contagious joy that filled every room he entered. His presence was a gift, and those fortunate enough to call him a friend were blessed by his genuine, warm spirit.

Tony's life was a melody of love, faith, and generosity, and though his time with us was far too short, his impact will resonate for years to come. He leaves behind his mother, Waleska Tidd, his father, Juan Fantauzzi Sr., his sister, Paola Fantauzzi, and countless friends and family who will forever cherish the memories of his laughter, his music, and the love he so freely gave.

Rest in peace, Tony. Your music plays on in our hearts.

Juan Antonio "Tony" Fantauzzi Jr., un querido hijo, músico y amigo, dejó este mundo demasiado pronto, dejando tras de sí un legado de música, amor y bondad.

Nacido una cálida tarde en Guayama, Puerto Rico, el 4 de octubre de 1996, Tony llegó a la vida con un ritmo en su corazón y alma. Desde que recibió su primer set de batería a los dos años, fue evidente que la música sería su compañera de vida.

A lo largo de su crecimiento, los talentos musicales de Tony florecieron en la iglesia, donde tocaba la batería y la guitarra, ofreciendo su don a Dios con cada golpe y acorde. Su pasión por la música de adoración fue siempre una parte central de su vida, y más tarde se convirtió en el Músico Principal en la iglesia Refugio de Dios en Florida. Allí, el amor de Tony por la música se transformó en su ministerio, tocando la batería y el bajo con una dedicación que inspiraba a todos a su alrededor. Su música no era solo sonido, era su forma de adorar, de dar y de conectarse con su fe y su comunidad.

Además de su talento musical, Tony tenía un amor por los deportes y un espíritu fuerte de disciplina. Enseñado por su padre, Tony obtuvo su cinturón negro de segundo grado en Tae Kwon Do, un logro que reflejaba tanto su compromiso como el vínculo cercano que compartía con su familia. Su mudanza a Florida a los 17 años le trajo nuevas oportunidades, y Tony las persiguió con entusiasmo, ya fuera a través de la música o de su pasión por hacer que la gente se moviera como DJ TFantz, donde compartía su energía y talento con todos

los que lo
escuchaban.

Pero más allá de sus logros, lo que realmente definía a Tony era su corazón.

Su amor por guiar

a los más jóvenes y su apoyo inquebrantable a sus amigos fueron las marcas de su carácter.

Conocer a Tony era conocer a un amigo que siempre estaba presente, ofreciendo amabilidad, sabiduría y una alegría contagiosa que llenaba cada lugar que pisaba. Su presencia era un

regalo, y aquellos afortunados de llamarlo amigo fueron bendecidos por su espíritu genuino y cálido.

La vida de Tony fue una melodía de amor, fe y generosidad, y aunque su tiempo con nosotros

fue demasiado breve, su impacto resonará durante muchos años. Deja atrás a su madre,

Waleska Tidd, a su padre, Juan Fantauzzi Sr., a su hermana, Paola Fantauzzi, y a innumerables amigos y familiares que siempre atesorarán los recuerdos de su risa, su música y

el amor que tan generosamente compartió.

Descansa en paz, Tony. Tu música sigue sonando en nuestros corazones.
