“ Juan was a special person, Angel and I used to tease him by telling him that he could have worked with the FBI search rescue team because he had such a good memory we would ask him for any part didn't matter how long or how many years it had been that he seen it, he would know exactly where it was and how many were left, as if he were smelling them, we could laugh and call him our search and rescue.... this was the type of friendship we had we were always teasing each other, he would bother me about being Colombian (and all that it implied!!!) I would get even with him and by making him kiss me on the cheek as our Latin culture tradition is :). He loved the Latin festivals & Hennessey.

Juan was and will always be a very special person who we called a friend. We knew we could count on him 100%, he wouldn't let you down.

WE WILL MISS HIM VERY MUCH,
Always your friend,
Carolina.

“ Juan I sure miss you, we had so many crazy conversations from sports, military, cars, even politics and who was gonna win this years election. I will always remember every time I told you some thing new you always responded "mira de verdad en buste" lol you always had me laughing.

Im grateful to have had shared time with you, you were a good man to my mom and loved her, I couldn't have asked more of you. May you enjoy sports from above and laugh while you watch over us and our shenanigans.

Love you always

“ Juan and I worked together at ABB Inc. for many years. We always messed with each other.....joking, laughing, coming up with sayings. His favorite was "Is it 3 O'Clock yet?" You never knew what Juan was going to say, but he did get everyone to laugh, usually messing with his co-workers. We talked about cars, sports, etc.....even though he liked the Carolina Panthers, he did tell me he would make my Buffalo Bills his favorite AFC team, because I asked him to be my friend, and cheer for my team. I know he will be missed at work, just because he was unpredictable with his quick wit humor.

As the Supervisor in the Stockroom at ABB I had the pleasure of working with Juan for over 7 years. Through his own unique style Juan kept everyone on their toes. You never knew what he was going to say, but he ALWAYS had everyone's best interest at heart.

There is a big void with his absence and he is missed.

Our sincerest condolences to his family and friends.
