“ Ken came to my house one year on my birthday -it was my week to wash dinner dishes and Ken said nobody should have to do dishes on their birthday ...so lo and behold he did the dishes for me. RIP my friend. Condolences to the family ♡♡♡

“ Dearest Susan, Nicole, Nick, Jennifer, Don and all of Kens grandchildren and other loved one. Our hearts ache for all of you. We all have lost a man who made everyone feel as if they where important and loved. Ken could and would make everyone laugh. We can hear his laughter when we think of him. Just the way Ken would smile, would brighten your day. Our hearts, thoughts, and prayers are with all of you! We sent you hugs and love. Richard, Debbie, Chris, and Andrew
