

Larry R. Ferguson Jr.

January 26, 1948 - January 23, 2026

Larry R. Ferguson, Jr. was born January 26, 1948, in Ashland, Kentucky and passed away January 23, 2026 in Orlando, Florida. Larry was born to Lawrence Ferguson, Sr and Jessie York Ferguson. His Kentucky roots always held a special place in his heart but he was always “at home” as long as he was with the love of his life, Nancy.

Larry loved his family and home above all else. He always thought that “a day outside is better than a day in the office,” and he spent as much time as he could working on and roaming around the land he and Nancy lived on in Cedar Creek, SC. He was an avid trout fisherman and especially loved cold stream fishing around Stone Mountain in North Carolina.

He is survived by his cherished wife of 57 years, Nancy Ferguson; his loving son and daughter-in-law, Jason and Eve Ferguson; his beloved sister, Lyn Rhoden; and the grandchildren he adored: Nolan, Miles, Ella, and Hunter.

Larry was loved dearly and will be greatly missed.

The family will be arranging for private celebrations of his life in Orlando and Columbia, SC soon. Donations to the Cure Alzheimer’s Fund, volunteering with a local pet rescue or wilderness conservation organization, or even just a walk in the woods with your loved ones would be a great way to honor his memory.

Tribute Wall

BM

“ Billie Jean Freeman Moristis lit a candle in memory of Larry R. Ferguson Jr.

Billie Jean Freeman Moristis - Yesterday at 08:25 AM

MP

“ In addition to the attributes already listed, I remember Larry as an impeccable dresser, avid reader, hard working, generous soul with a dry sense of humor. He was a wonderful husband to my best friend Nancy. I hope he now has the chance to do all the things he loved in heaven. He'll be happy to no longer be in pain and be able to recall wonderful memories of his time here on earth.

Mary Puryear - January 28 at 11:13 AM