“ I will remember her smiling face that would great all the kids when they came to church. I thought about her tonight at our life group remembering the nights she was with us talking about her faith. She was the first of us to see Jesus face to face. Who knew it would be the youngest to be before us all. I think of the joy she is experiencing, the reality of what we think about, pray about. See you again Lindsay!

“ My Darling Daughter, My Love,

Here is the song I made up for you when were a tiny baby lying in my arms as I rocked you to sleep. I loved you so much I couldn't even put you down once you fell asleep, I just kept on rocking and rocking, holding and holding. So I sang:

*Lindsay, Lindsay Beautiful Lindsay Marie
She's so Lovely, How can you help but see
Mommy adores her, Daddy thinks she's a pearl
Lindsay, Lindsay Beautiful little girl.....*

My heart will sing for you always sweet child. Oh how I will miss you.

*All My Love
Always,
Mom
XOXO*

“ Hi my name is Hailee, I am Lindsay's daughter and she was a very loving and caring mom and my family will never forget her. She was very beautiful and that's where I get my good looks from. Something I liked the most about my mom is that she called me "Lovebug" it made me feel so special. I love her with all my heart.....
