

Lisa Beth Lemons

December 14, 1965 - December 28, 2016

Lisa Beth Lemons, 51, of Oviedo, Florida, passed away on December 28, 2016. She was born in Machias, Maine, on December 14, 1965. Lisa is survived by her children; sons, Devin Higgins, Dylan Bartley, Cooper Lemons, and Caleb Lemons; and daughter Meghan Bartley.

Lisa Beth was an overall incredible human being. Lisa's drive and motivation in life was to give her children the best life and memories that she could provide. She used her many talents in a way that created these memories and now they will always remember her in the best light possible. From a simple baking of our favorite holiday treats, to paint party birthday bashes, to hand stitched Halloween costumes and blankets, and to always being the loudest mom in the bleachers. She left her mark not only with her children but within the community. Her contribution of selfless volunteer work not only was greatly appreciated by others but filled her heart with great happiness and joy. Through all her hard work and devotion to ensure her children's lives were fulfilled, she never considered it to be a sacrifice; For she LIVED for the happiness of her children.

Services will be held on January 6, 2017 at First United Methodist Church in Oviedo, Florida. The family asks anyone that will be attending the service to wear the color purple as that was Lisa's favorite color.

“ Many have used the word "amazing" to describe Lisa, and it is no exaggeration. I could fill many books with stories of the wonderful times I had with her. However, one of the most notable was Christmas 2013. Her two youngest boys were out of state for it, which I know made her sad, yet she still had it in her to spend it with me and brought presents for everyone in my family. This gesture in itself encompassed everything she was about. I will never forget it. My life and this world will never be the same without her. I will love you forever, Lisa.

“ I met Lisa at Umaine as part of the Onward program. She was bold, smart, funny and loved her children beyond anything else. It's hard to comprehend she has gone on to a new journey, while we still walk this one. I will always remember her smile, her passion for life, and most of all, her ability to love those in her life.

“ Lisa, for me, was many amazing and important things. 1st and foremost she was my hero. I looked up to her like I never have anyone before. She was my best friend, my sister, my mother, my confidante. She was always teaching me things and expressing her love for me...even when I wasn't doing or acting or thinking the best. She never turned her back on me and she never gave up on me. I know even now from her place of rest she's rooting me on, knowing that I'll make the right choices day by day. It's an incredible loss for her to be gone and it almost still doesn't seem real. I keep waiting for her to text and ask me to come keep her company and possibly do the dishes or wash the dogs... She loves her children more than she ever has loved anything before and she taught me that you don't need riches to have happy children and the best life possible. "You gotta make it work with what you've got Jack" she always would say to me. And she was always right. Her absence will be notable every single day that goes by but she is no longer in pain. Please never forget her...any of you. Never let a day go by where a thought of her doesn't bring a smile to your face. She left the world to venture new places and she wants us all to be happy and continue to grow and enjoy life as she would have done. I love you Lisa Beth. My deepest of sympathies and love to all 5 of you children....her legacies...her everything's. X0x0x0

“ I will always remember Lisa as an incredibly talented woman who could make anything from scratch or fix anything (i wish i could have hired her to fix things around my house) She made beautiful clothing and blanket for my children when they were born. I always looked forward to seeing the Halloween costumes she made for the children. They were incredible and of course handmade!! Mostly she was a wonderful mother to all her children, whom she loved so much.

We send our condolences to Lisa's entire family. May she rest in peace with the Angels.
