“ To My Sister

To Lisa My Sister, I'm so sorry that you're gone.

I will miss you for sure but I'm happy, your with Mom.

I think about you all the time, I wish I could have been there,

We were kind of crazy when we were young

Imagine the stories we could have shared

I remembered standing out on the window ledge in the projects when we were young

Years later I had to ask you if it was a dream or something we had actually done

I remember being stuck in the house the day it burnt to the ground

Grabbing you and running down the back stairs,

When mom and dad weren't around

I know that you were older than me but you were always my little sis

I think back on all the good we had

And you will always be missed

Love your little brother
