“ I met Lourdes at the cancer center, I was one of her nurses in the clinic. She was just a very beautiful and spiritual person. We used to always remember each other's birthdays because hers was always a day after mine. May she rest in peace with her loving Savior and rejoice. Praying for her family during this difficult time.

“ Lourdes was my ex wife , she was a very kind ,gentle and generous lady...she loved the Lord and did her best to be a beacon of light to the world

She will truly be miss in this world but the choir in heaven are rejoicing to have her join them

My condolences goes out to all her family and friends...may the joy of her memories keep you all smiling as she would want .

Lordes was such a special person and a dear to so many people over the years. She touched so many lives and she loved the Lord. Heaven has certainly gained another angel she is now in paradise with our lord. Rest in Peace my dear sister gone but not forgotten. May God give her family and friends strength during this time.

Lourdes is a wonderful woman and strong Christian. Everyone that met her knew that she loved her Savior, Jesus. We, here on earth will suffer her loss, but she is in Celebration mode now in perfect health and strength with God and all loved ones that preceded her. I am happy for her, and sad for us. :D
