“ Dear Maggie, you were a beautiful soul. I first met you in 1992 when I first came to volunteer at the Lila Mitchell Center of the Dept of Health. You welcomed me with open arms. You were instrumental in me getting hired a year later. My pens always ended up being yours, even though they had my name on them..😊. You always had a beautiful smile on your face even through the difficult times. I will miss you. To the family, my thoughts and prayers are with you all. Just know God makes no mistakes. He only takes the best. Love and God Bless. Yvonne Perry
