“ My mom, my rock, and my friend. She was and will always be the foundation of our family. She did her best to try to keep us together. Well, she finally got what she wanted, all of her family together. She will be missed so much but she is now happier than ever. She no longer has pain. I love you mom...Till we meet again.

“ Our deepest condolences to the loving family of Maria C. Perez. We were joined in family by the marriage of our children and found we had a great deal in common.
My favorite memory of Maria is the family vacay we spent in Pensacola for the graduation of our grandson. The evening on the beach was almost as beautiful as Maria's constant smile. She will be greatly missed.

“ Junito and I didn't have a wedding when we married, so on our 10 year anniversary, we renewed our vows and had a wedding. We lived in South Korea at the time. Mami sacrificed quite a few things to save up the money for a year to buy a plane ticket to Korea and fly overseas by herself to be there for us! That's the kind of heart she had. That's just one example of the many times she sacrificed to be there for us or send gifts to the kids. I know this isn't goodbye, it's just see ya later... I can't wait to see ya later Mami... healed and healthy and happy with our Lord and Savior. I love you.
