“ I met Mary on a trip to Atlanta for a conference; She was vibrant and full of love for Jesus and her family! She didn't hesitate to show me love and compassion when she saw my sadness... She had no judgement, just love and compassion! Her story and encouragement got me through some very difficult times in my marriage, she prayed with me, and for me! She's walking the streets of gold with her husband and Dad today! I hope she knew what a difference she made in my life! I told her several times, but "thank you" never feels like enough for someone that selflessly gives of themselves to help someone they barely know. My life was enriched because of Mary, and I hope I'm able to show others the love and compassion she showed me!
