“ Maryann,

Farewell, my beautiful Purple Passion Sister. Now you are free from the pain, suffering, and anguish, and you are dancing free in the Great Circle. My heart is deeply broken that we can not see each other with eyes anymore because yours have closed for the final time here in the earth realm. But the glory of the LORD that now surrounds you far surpasses any and all that you have ever seen. I will keep always and forever keep your laughter in my ears and your smile in my heart. I love you.

You can now rejoice with Andrew Hunter, Pappy, and my mom, always your Nana. Nana and Pappy are greeting you with cookies, and Andrew presenting you with your Wampum necklace. And you will surely finally now get to meet my Beloved - don't the two of you talk about me too bad!

Buddy, my heart and spirit are in great pain with you right now. My prayers are for comfort, peace and eternal joy in your heart, for the love and beautiful relationship you two shared. We love you. —

“ I am very sorry for your loss. God has a perfect memory and purposes to bring our loved ones back to life in a future paradise . Please find comfort in Acts 25:15 where it gives us hope that there will be a resurrection. Wishing you comfort and hope.

Maryann was one of the most caring aunt ever. Her advise was always spot on. Never thinking of herself, always putting others first. Her desire to love unconditionally was betty noticeable. Maryann had the best turkey pot pie and chicken noodle soup ever. Well let me take that back, everything my aunt made was amazing. I remember the 14 hour days she put in as a nurse and never once complained, cause that's just who she was. I will never ever forget the love you had for me and our family. I love you auntie forever and ever.

“ As I never had the pleasure of personally meeting this beautiful soul, I can only imagine how special she truly was to have won over the heart of my childhood friend Glenn. He is one of my oldest and dearest friends and means the world to me and so by that standard alone I also accept her as a person of such great quality and beauty that her loss is breaking my heart. I have cried many tears being unable to be there to comfort my friend. Just a hug, a smile or some reassurance that I understand the pain. But does anyone really understand? I know that you can't measure the pain. Is it the same for everyone? Nobody knows that. I do not know if you hurt as much or more than I do. Will we heal? I don't know? I do know that as your friend I will be here if you ever want to talk. I do know that your beautiful wife is watching over you until your job is done and she will be waiting for you. And all of your friends and family here love you.. if I can do anything even just talk or cry or just list to each other stare at the walls I got your back. I love you my friend. Always Lauri Luebke

“ MaryAnn was an awesome niece. She loved life and fought hard to stay with her loved ones. I'm going to greatly miss our phone chats. She told me once that she can be your best friend or your worst enemy. You definitely didn't want her for an enemy!! You left us too soon but I know that you are no longer suffering. My prayers are with Buddy and her family!
I love you girl! Enjoy those purple angel wings and give Uncle Jack a bunch of hugs for me! Fly high angel!!
