

Matthew Victor Schafer

February 18, 1968 - December 25, 2023

Matthew Victor Schafer, 55, of Orlando, Florida passed away on December 25, 2023. He was born on February 18, 1968, in Queens, New York to Edwin and Isabel Schafer.

Funny, sensitive, musically talented, mechanically gifted, and stubborn as a mule, Matthew had an infectious smile. You couldn't help but smile back when he showed his pearly whites. With his shiny bald head. Throughout his life Matthew worked as a mechanic for Sears, a police officer for the Clermont Police Department, a detailer for Mega Tech Auto Collision, and lastly a golf cart mechanic. His most proud moments in his life were when he became a father and when he became a police officer. One of his favorite past times was to go out riding on his motorcycle and refurbishing vintage musical equipment. One of his very favorite bands was Kiss and he loved a wide variety of music, following in the footsteps of his grandparents on his mother's side. He also loved playing the drums and was quite a good drummer.

Matthew is predeceased by his father, Edwin Schafer and sister, Elizabeth Schafer. He is survived by his daughter, Kayla; mother, Isabel Camacho (Jose Camacho); brother, Joseph Camacho and Jerry Nilsenbaun; sister, Victoria McCray; and grandchild, Jordan. Matthew will be greatly missed, and our hearts will forever be missing the part that belonged to him.

“ Growing up , he was a prankster and he would often get me laughing , or frustrated with his antics. One of his favorite things to do was pop me with a towel while I was busy helping in the kitchen, or jump out of his room and scare me , as I was walking down the hallway. But we always ended up laughing about it , because as he laughed, I couldn't help but join him. He also gave the best hugs! You could feel ALL of his love with his embrace and his love ran deep. He loved the cartoon series Beavis and Butthead and he would often mimic their laughter or sayings when he was kidding around with you. Those antics of his , as much as they may have sometimes frustrated me as a kid growing up, will forever be remembered and cherished.
