“ I’m so sick to hear of Melodys transition! She was my friend! From the first time we met, when we realized her daughter and I lived in the same community! She passed threw the neighborhood with her husband and grandkids during Halloween and we finally got meet face to face, after years of talking through our Facebook group! “ Dennis and family. Please accept my condolences on Melody's passing. I only knew her through our common group connection on Facebook but we shared many chat conversations over the last year or so and became virtual friends. Through our conversations I knew she had beat cancer once before and was hoping to beat it again. My wife is a cancer survivor and that was a common topic of conversation. She was a kind, loving and helpful person and I know she will be missed by you and by us here in Facebook land. My heart goes out to all of you and I can take some comfort in knowing that her pain is gone and she is finally resting in peace.
