“Michael, my brother, you are gone too soon. I am sorry for everyone that knew and loved Michael. He was a man of many talents and interests. He was an entrepreneur, a hard worker, an avid weightlifter, and a music lover. He loved playing the drums. His greatest love was for his sons, Jack and Alec. He was so proud of them, and there was nothing he wouldn't do to give them support and encouragement. He also loved his mother whom he helped to relocate near to him so that she wouldn't be alone and he could check in on her. He was very thoughtful in that way. Love always, Don.

“One time Michael and I were going to bake a cake and he was reading the instructions out loud. He said "Pre Hate the oven to 350 degrees and without missing a beat, he turned to the oven and said "I hate you". It was so funny. It still makes me laugh to this day. I told my kids that story and now whenever anyone goes to bake something, we all "pre hate" the oven first. I am so thankful that we became friends again.
