“ Mikey was a good man, full of dirty jokes and good cheer, and a real passion for cooking. I loved the fourth of July party I got to attend of his... it was years ago, but he was such a splendid host, with jokes and stories and a delicious spread! I remember his face was positively beaming as he shared funny stories and memories from Lombard's and gave Carl a hard time, (as per usual, lol). I enjoyed the time I spent working with him as well, and competing with him in the UO culinary competition. No matter how tough a turn life took for him, he always managed to carry on with dignity and pride. This is how I will always remember him... jokester and my caring friend.

“ Big Mike was great to have as a friend. Plus handy in a situation. He was working at Cindy's good time pub as there cook. I got in a scuffle with a guy and ended up on the bottom Mike came picked us both up and shook Lonnie off me carried Him to the front door kicked open and deposited him on the sidewalk told him to sober up and don't mess with Vic. Gotta love him rest in peace.
