

Michelle Andrea Mediavilla

July 23, 1969 - August 5, 2017

Michelle Andrea Mediavilla spread her angel wings and flew to Heaven on August 5, 2017 while under the care of Lake Nona VA Hospice in Orlando with her family by her side.

Michelle was born on July 23, 1969 in St. Petersburg, Florida to Frank and Maria Mediavilla.

She grew up in Gulfport and attended schools at Holy Name Catholic and Boca Ciega High School. She was a Navy veteran, serving from 1989 to 1992. She also graduated from the University of Central Florida. At the time of her death, she was a self employed web content writer.

Michelle is survived by her mother, Maria Mediavilla of St. Petersburg, Florida, her father and step mother, Frank and Debby Mediavilla of Lake Wales, Florida, her sister Maria Tomasko of St. Petersburg, Florida and her two children, Nicole and Bobby, by her sister Dolores "Deedee" Chen and her husband Tai of Nairobi, Kenya and their children Courtney and Connor Chen and David and Mike Young, and by her brother Frank Mediavilla and his wife Sebrina of Orlando and their three children Kassity, John and Parker.

Michelle had a heart bigger than the state of Texas and her love and compassion for others knew no bounds. She was totally unselfish of herself. Everyone who knew her loved her and she will be so missed by her family and friends.

Per Michelle's request there will be no services, her family will hold a Celebration of Life at her brother's home in Orlando on August 8, 2017. The family suggests that donations be made in her name to The Barber Fund, The BarberFund.org, which was Michelle's favorite charity.

“ words cannot express my sorrow for this world losing such a great person, but to know how many hearts she touched makes it somewhat more comforting. To the Mediavilla family I am sorry for your loss and I hope knowing what a wonderful person she was makes it more evident that God has a big plan for her in his Kingdom.
