

Mildred Elizabeth Stallings

June 22, 1945 - September 25, 2021

Mildred Elizabeth Stallings, 76, of Winter Park, Florida passed away Saturday, September 25, 2021. She was born on June 22, 1945 in Washington, D.C.

Millie moved from Chesapeake Beach, Maryland to Orlando.

She worked for Marriott Distribution for 30 years and retired as a Purchasing Agent. She also worked for Imperial Dade, formerly known as Kahn Paper for another 10 years as a purchasing agent before her Parkinson's wouldn't allow it any longer. She loved the holiday seasons and decorated everything! She loved shopping, crafting, and gardening in her spare time. She loved her family and was known as Nana to many beloved extended family and friends.

Millie is survived by her daughter, Christine Hall (husband, Gary Hall); daughter, Cynthia Eck; brother, Albert Nuckols; brother, Glen Willard; sister, Patricia Willard; grandson, Daniel Vallandingham (wife, Holly); granddaughter, Heather Eck; grandson, River-James Hall; grandson, Tyler-James Hall; grandson, Timothy Thornton; grandson, Nicholas Thornton; and great granddaughters, McKinsey and LeeAnn. She was preceded in death by her parents, Albert and Olive Marie Willard; brother, Robert Willard; brother, Clarence Willard; sister, Dorothy Duncan; niece, Kathy Sailor.

Services will be held privately at a later date.

Millie will be missed by all who knew and loved her.
