

Mirtes F Mancuso

March 7, 1940 - May 17, 2023

Our dear mother, Mirtes Mancuso, left us to join her parents and deceased friends on May 17 at the age of 83. She was a wonderful loving mother and grandmother who was always there when family needed her. Despite her many difficulties, she was a shining example of facing life with both stubborn determination and good humor. Her love for God, birds, butterflies, animals, and those fortunate enough to know her will continue to live on in the hearts of all of us.

Tribute Wall

GM

“ Today you put a song in my head that i haven't heard since ii was a little girl. I feel you i hear you somedays and i know youre alive again. That song was so twangy about a man losing his family and i remember it being a blue and yellow labeled 45 record. So i know it was your april fool type joke Mom, keep em coming!!!! Its april 6 and still feels like i lost you yesterday.

Giovana Mancuso - April 06, 2024 at 06:29 PM

GM

Last night i realized you didd keep your promise . I saw the signs, the one that stands out is Brubeck and a yellow lab

G Mancuso - November 06, 2024 at 01:26 PM

DH

“ I just came across Mrs. Mancuso's obituary and wish I had known earlier. I grew up with my family in Azalea Park, and Mrs. Mancuso and her family lived across the street. I remember that laugh that Sebastian referred to and can still hear it in my memories of her. We lost touch over the years, but my sincere sympathies and prayers go out to Sebastian and Giovana and the rest of their family. I would like to recommend two poems that have always brought me comfort in the loss of a loved one. "You Can" by Elizabeth Ammons; and, "The Broken Chain" by Ron Tranmer. I hope you will find comfort in them as well.

Drew A. Hawkins

Drew A. Hawkins - September 30, 2023 at 08:02 AM

GM

To Drew i apologize, there are still people i havent told yet. Ive thought about you and have been yet unable to go thru all the things i need to, so many memories and great times. She was a force to be reckoned with and loved your family dearly

Giovana Mancuso - April 06, 2024 at 06:36 PM

DR

No need to apologize. I understand the process of going through everything. It takes a lot of time. Please tell Sebastian I said hello. I hope all is well with both of you and your families.

Drew - October 20, 2024 at 03:40 PM

PV

“ Mirtes was my aunt...I never met her but always heard about her from my mother (sister in law) and other relatives. We have been in touch, sometimes by phone, sometimes by letters, despite the distance and the different roads that life has planned for us, but my feelings for her have always been of love and respect. Rest in peace, auntie: we love you and you will live forever in our hearts. ❤️

Primo Valvo - June 09, 2023 at 06:56 AM

SM

“ My favorite memories of my mother, Mirtes, involve times when she laughed. Anyone who ever heard her unique laugh knew it was special. I addition, She would often ask me to “get that thing over there next to the other thing”. Somehow I would usually understand what she meant and then joke about it and we would both end up laughing over it. My family and I will miss her and her laugh terribly!

Sebastian Mancuso - June 08, 2023 at 05:48 PM

RJ

“ Mirtes and my mom were dear friends for many years. I can remember the numerous road trips they took together, and the times they spent getting together at each other houses. You held a special place in our hearts. ❤️. Ruth Jordan

Ruth Jordan - June 07, 2023 at 10:16 PM

GI

“ Giovana lit a candle in memory of Mirtes F Mancuso

Giovana - May 31, 2023 at 08:34 AM

GI

I am so lucky to have known her, as her daughter blessed by this fierce guardian who is still watching us. In between the dancing, singing and celebrating her reunion with her family and friends, comforts me with Jesus by her side!!! Thank You heavenly Father for allowing me to have my angel here on earth as a preview of things to come!

Giovana - May 31, 2023 at 08:57 AM

LD

Mirtes is an Amazing spunky woman. Strong and fearless, never have to wonder what she thinks! Me and my entire family has had the privilege of knowing Mirtes and spending time with her for the last 22 years.
Her stories of her life were always interesting and unforgettable. Her laughter was contiguous and her smile made you smile.
She loved talking about recipes ,cooking and made the best turkey and rice /beans. Said "no one could ever make it better"
Her life had great meaning,raised a beautiful daughter, to whom I have the privilege to call her one of my best friends. Mirtes is loved by many and never forgotten until we meet again in heaven.

Lorraine Duberstein - June 02, 2023 at 07:27 PM

PV

Mirtes was my aunt...I never met her but always heard about her from my mother (sister in law) and other relatives. We have been in touch, sometimes by phone, sometimes by letters, despite the distance and the different roads that life has planned for us, but my feelings for her have always been of love and respect. Rest in peace, auntie: we love you and you will live forever in our hearts. ❤️

Primo Valvo - June 09, 2023 at 06:53 AM

GM

*Anche se distanti e mai conosciuti ci sentiamo vicini al vostro dolore.
Un abbraccio in ricordo della zia Mirtes 🌸
La famiglia di Mancuso Angelo*

Giovanna Mancuso - June 13, 2023 at 01:09 PM