“ Omggg Nathan. Why? Why you? Why so soon? My stomach hurts just thinking about what and why this happened to you. You were so young. You had your whole life ahead of you. You were just now saying you were gonna get your shit straight and start doing right. The last time I seen you was when we were at Tees house havin a good ole time laughing so hard to the point where we were crying. I miss those days. I wish I just had 5 more minutes with you. To hug you and remember what it was like to hear your laugh. You helped me get through allooooooot a shit when I lived with my dad. Whenever I needed to tall you'd be there for me. I remember when me and you were texting each other and I sent you a pic of Makiya and you said she was fine as fuck and then boom! Y'all dated lmao I miss you so much Nathan its in believable. I remember being there when you and kiya first kissed. Y'all were so happy. I miss you everyday baby boy. Justice WILL be served and whoever did this to you WILL rott in hell for runnin away! 💙 love ya Nate dawg, can't believe its been two years already. 🙏😔

“ I still think about you so much Nathan. No one ever really knew how close we was. I remember you coming over to the Holiday Acres laundry mat, walking over to my house to beat on my window, telling me I need to get my butt out there to hang out with you or you were gonna come in and eat all my food. I also think about the times that I would text you saying i needed you. And by the time I looked up to the end of the road you were either running or riding a bike as far as you could. Many of my tears and probably a little snot was on your shoulder. If there was anyway I could bring you back I would. I need that shoulder right about now. You were my little brother. Bonded by love not blood. I'll forever think about you, never in these past two years have you not been on my mind. I love you Nathenia 🙏😭😭 remember me calling you that so I could hangout with you because we wanted my mom to think you were a girl. God I miss you I hope your still resting in piece ❤️❤️

God it still hurts so much but I know you wouldn't want us all to be sad and upset, you would want us to turn up for you. I'll see you on the 20th because ill probably be there all day.

“Nathan always had a bright smile for me. He was always polite to me. "Yes, Miss, I'm going to listen to you" was what he said to me the last time we spoke. Unfortunately, he's gone too soon. I am saddened at his passing and at so young an age.

To the family of Nathan please accept my deepest condolences and I pray that your memory of Nathan will bring smiles to your heart. Focus on the joy you shared during the small amount of time you had with him. May God bless you all and bring you closer together during this season of immense grief.

“ Nathan I didn't know you well, but there were several times I hung around you and talked to you a couple times. I never knew those would be my last times speaking with you, and I truly wish they weren't. the good are always taken from us too soon, you had a radiant smile and personality that would shine through any room you walked into. you were a true blessing to meet, even though I wish I knew you longer or got to know you better. you were young, you were wild, and now you're free. fly high Nate, you'll always have a place in everyone's heart.

“ Nate a couple years ago me and you used to talk here and there , but we weren't as close as you were to the majority of the people I know. Every time we talked you were always full of joy and happiness. You were the life of the party. You could walk into a crowd of angry/upset people and change their mood instantly. I don't know why these things happen to people especially at such a young age, but I do know that you are safe and in good hands watching over all of us. You're loved by many and you've made such an impact on so many lives. I know it isn't easy for your family @ all. I just lost my cousin a month ago and the pain is still unbearable. I'm keeping your family and friends in my prayers. May god be with all that have been affected. Fly high bud.

“ Nathan was my student in 6th & 7th grade. He was always smiling. One time, I had a bad headache and as he arrived to class, he told me to sit down and he would get the kids in and seated plus started on their bell work. So he begins to shout loudly at them to "just sit down, be quiet and do the bell work" and he smiles. I sat there thinking he is such a sweetie and trying in his unique way to help. Am so sorry you're facing this; no parent should.
