

Noelia Morales

October 2, 1945 - June 29, 2021

Noelia Morales, 75, of Orlando, Florida passed away Tuesday, June 29, 2021. She was born on October 2, 1945 in Ponce, Puerto Rico - the Island of her heart and her beautiful mountains. As she always said, "I love my mountains!" She also lived in several other states as an Army brat, ultimately ending up in New York and then Orlando, Florida. Noelia was a God fearing woman with a giving spirit and a genuine loving heart. She knew no strangers and was a friend to all of whom she met. She was an avid reader. She loved to read from her library of over 3,000 books, sitting in her back porch with the cool breeze on her back and a good book in her hand in the evenings. As a Christian Pastor she led a life of example showing God's love in everything she did, caring for everyone she came in contact with. She traveled to Costa Rica on a missions trip with her husband, Luis Morales, sharing the Word of God and the love she had for him with all who would hear. Her legacy is her loving family whom she cared for and adored so dearly, and spent every moment she could with them teaching them all her family traditions, recipes etc. A loving family of Navy and Army men and women. Her son, - A Renaissance Man - chef, mechanic, great husband, dad, and a loving son who would turn the world upside down and give her the moon full of orchids if it was possible. A writer-photographer, A Cordon Bleu Baker/Chef, psychology graduate, a singer, two musicians, and strong hard working mothers and daughters who loved and cared for their families and as well as her in her elder years. She instilled in them the love of God and family just as she learned at an early age that He, God, is the Light and the Truth that guided her always. Her 8 children, 11 grandchildren 7 great grandchildren, 2 fur babies and 6 grand fur-babies were her life; she loved every single one of them. Not to mention all the children she taught in her missions school in Puerto Rico and her extended family of sisters and brothers nieces and nephews from Puerto Rico and from New York from the Medina, Flores, and Rodriguez sides of the family. She was a favorite aunt to many and sometimes a fill in mom to some. She loved her family and kept them all in her heart and prayers daily. When she prayed she really prayed hard for them all. She knew God would answer her prayers, protecting her family, and guiding them in life and love. She conquered the world with her "Sword of Faith and Truth" living her life to the fullest. Noelia was a strong, faithful women; the lioness of her brood, same as her mother, Elvira Flores, before her and her grandmother, Matilde Rivera, before her. Full of love, grace and faithfulness. Her favorite bible verse II Timothy 3:15 "And that from childhood you have known the Holy Scriptures, which are able to make you wise from salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus."

Noelia is preceded in death by her loving husband, Luis Morales Martinez, her mother Elvira Flores and her brother, Edwin Flores. She is survived by her daughter, Liz C. Rodriguez; daughter, Debbie L. Rodriguez (husband, Miguel Velez, Sr.); daughter, Tiffany Ann Cabrera (husband Manny Cabrera); son, Michael Angelo Rodriguez (wife, Leslie Rodriguez); daughter, Annie Morales; son, William Morales; son, Ivan Morales; son, Miguel Morales; brother, Jorge Medina; brother, Luis Flores; sister, Alva Velazquez; sister, Judith Flores; sister, Maria Costello; grandson, Timothy Eric Rodriguez (wife, Brandy Rodriguez); granddaughter, Kimberly Ann Muñoz; grandson, Luis Alberto Muñoz Rodriguez (wife, Rachel Rodriguez); grandson, Christian Aaron Rodriguez; granddaughter, Karina Lynn Girona; grandson Anthony Cabrera, grandson, Michael Angelo Rodriguez, Jr.; grandson, Jonathan Alexander Rodriguez; grandson, Isaiah Samuel Rodriguez; grandson, Caleb Luis Rodriguez; granddaughter, Anneliese Janet Matta Rodriguez; grandson, Miguel Angel Velez, Jr. (wife, Nicole Letton); granddaughter, AlexaJade

Kassandra Velez; great grandchildren, Liara Jade Rodriguez, Valen Lance Rodriguez, Brianna Lynn Morales, Genesis Anakoni-Bane Medina, Gabrielle Velez, Eliana Velez, Giovanni Velez, and Emory Michael Velez; beloved dogs, Tootsie Lynn and Lebo; beloved grand-dogs Jinx, Bentley, Jada Marie Elizabeth, Diesel Blu, Leessy and Flory; and lots of nieces, nephews, cousins and other extended family and friends. “ It's been a while five years without you & over 13 without grandma I still can't get over it ☐. I know how much you loved flowers. Here are a few I thought you would like. I think of you and cry everyday. My heart was broken before when grandma left but when you left it shattered. It's been really hard since you've been gone. I lost my heart , my best mate, my vacay companion and a bit of my soul when you passed on. You and grandma Elvira were the two matriarchs in my life that kept me sane and on track. You guys were the glue that held the family together. Unfortunately since both of you are not here it hasn't been the same and the families have separated. Yes it happens everyone keeps saying that but its still sad that it does. I know you already know dad passed 4 days ago. I hope he was able to meet you in heaven and Luis would not be too jealous. Lately my emotions have been a bit crazy. I don't know how to handle them. I miss our late night talks and morning brunches. I miss the road trips to anywhere. Your truck misses those trips. We took her to Chicago for isaiahs Navy graduation. I kept her and Isaiah has the Cruze. I've been around Florida with her too from Miami , Port Saint Lucie and Tampa, & Saint pete a few times. I felt you with me on that day of the beach sunrise in Miami. Also the visit to South Beach Brewery where Lebo (David) painted the inside. I feel you and grandma with me on The Snavely farm too. I know your in heaven with bo more pain or sorrow but I really wish you were here. I miss you too much. Can we ask God for a phone line to heaven so I can call you and grandma and talk on the phone for hours like we used to do. I could use a long talk about life, the New Art I have found or nothing. 😭 I just miss you and don't know how to be without you. I'm trying but its hard. Luv Luv!

“ A lady with the most beautiful soul, her fabulous smile was the proof. Always kind and caring, funny and smart. It was my pleasure to know you and the honor of being a friend to you daughter Liz, which led to getting to know and love more of the family. You will be missed by so many. The first time we met was a hoot, I had an hour to grab lunch and asked Liz if she wanted to run out for some lunch, but she already had plans with her mom. When her mom arrived she said - come on - we can all go, get in my car - I'll have you back in an hour..... Many laughs and great food - I had the pleasure of meeting this lady who was larger than life. Her infectious joy had touched my life and changed it forever.

“ Nolly was always a loving welcoming person. I know her for many years back from New York. Destiny move us in different directions but we seen each other again as destiny bought us back as we both moved to Florida. We didn't share much time together but when we did meet, it was like we never were apart. I know she was a very loving and caring person to all. You could feel the love that radiated from her smile which I will always remember.

Lord, grant Noelia Morales that she rejoice on the day when your glory will be revealed and in the company of all her brothers and sisters in Christ, share for ever the happiness of your kingdom. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Always will be remembered!

“ While I did not have the pleasure of knowing Noelia, I know her beautiful daughter. Liz's amazing spirit is a testimony to how wonderfully she was raised. I know that Noelia was extremely loved and will be missed beyond words. We know that by our faith, we will meet again in heaven - but in the meantime, I pray that the memories of her will bring great comfort, laughter and joy. Know that you are in my thoughts, my fervent prayers and that I am grieving along with you.

Father God, our King and Savior, welcome our sweet sister home and we look forward to seeing her again someday.

“ Titi Nolly, I will always remember your bright big smile . It always shined and was always your greeting to everyone, no matter how you were feeling , you smiled and laughed . We were always able to make a phone call and ask you to pray for us when we were in need . You were the first born of 6. You loved your siblings like children of your own , no matter what. Your cooking was always delicious! And your welcoming arms will be cherished, but missed so deeply . You are home with God now, and you are His Angel, watching over us now. We love you . We WILL see you again.

“ You were the oldest of six. In January we lost Eddie and we became Five. We couldn't have known in less than six months we would lose you too. I would've held you tighter when I said goodbye. I would've sat with you longer but I guess it wasn't meant to be. My last conversation with you was harassing you to get up but you were too weak. Yet you still tried to sound as if you were ok because you would never say you weren't. When we said what was to be our final goodbye I said I love you and as always you responded, I love you too. We are now four on this earth but remain six in our hearts. Each of us will miss you so very much and will keep you in our hearts always until we meet again. RIP

I love you Nolly. ❤️❤️❤️❤️ — 💔💔💔
