“ The Ortiz-Del Valle family send our deepest condolences to Olga's daughter, son, brother, sisters, grandchildren, other extended family members and her dear friends! So sad to know that Olga, our dear cousin has left this world so young! We will always remember her beautiful smile and terrific personality. We know that the Lord, our God did not want her suffering any longer, so he took her to his resting place in his beautiful paradise that awaits all of us, free from worries and pain. Pray and be happy, for she is now healed and in God's arms! May God provide you all with comfort and may he bring peace of mind to the family during this time of loss and may the memories made during their life time together surround them with joy and love! Rest in peace dear cousin, with our love!
