

Oliverio Andoresbarro

February 5, 1941 - August 12, 2023

Oliverio Andoresbarro, 82, of Orlando, Florida passed away on August 12, 2023. He was born on February 5, 1941 in Wichita, Kansas to Earl McKinley Clay and Mattie Lee Eva Toliver. Oliverio is survived by his wife, Vicenta E. Barro; son, Kanon C. Barro; daughters, Reina Escoto, Betty Barrahona, Alma Rubio, and Blanca Barro; brothers, Herb Clay and Adriel Clay; sister, Shannon Roberts; grandchildren, Kanon T. Barro, Kevin Barro, Katalina G. Barro, Ivan Rubio, Estefany Rubio, Ashley Rubio, Karen Ginorio, Leslie Serrano, Martin Serrano Jr., Elizabeth Cabrera, Fidel Vazquez Jr., Joseph Vasquez, Daniel Barrahona Jr., Elly Reitman, Diana Barrahona, Jennifer Barrahona, Gabriel Barrahona, Yanet Clay, Arthur Clay Jr., Jonathan Clay, Kailey Clay; and great-grandchildren, Nathan Rubio, Kamila Ginerio, and Laylannie Cabrera.

Cemetery Details

Cape Canaveral National Cemetery

5525 US Highway 1
Mims, FL 32754

Previous Events

Funeral Services

AUG 17. 6:00 PM (ET)

Faith Assembly of God
9307 Curry Ford Road
Orlando, FL 32825

Tribute Wall

AH

“ Augusta Barro Henderson lit a candle in memory of Oliverio Andoresbarro

Augusta Barro Henderson - October 13, 2024 at 10:55 PM

AH

Dear family of Oliverio (Erumidon) as I once knew him as. I just happened to think of him & decided to see search for him. I'm so truly sorry for your lost. He served well in law enforcement. I'm his ex- wife of over 50 years ago. My name is Augusta Ann Henderson.....Augusta Ann Barro

Augusta Barro Henderson - October 13, 2024 at 11:02 PM