“ Abuelo, we all miss you so much. So many cherished memories we have shared. You have seen your grandchildren's children and been able to enjoy and love them. My kids will be coming to say goodbye to you and we will share all the great memories we have of you. I will tell them of the times you would call me and ask me what I wanted from my school book fair as a child, as well as tell me you will come visit from New York on bike. You would take my childhood tantrums and turn them into great memories. When I used to say "Oh my Goodness!" upset, you would give me the nickname goodney goodney lol. Or when I would talk to you about what I learned in school about mother nature, you would not forget and talk to me about it the next time we saw each other. I am so blessed to have had you in my life and even got to live with you for some time when you moved in with Mami about 10 years ago. I will remember you teaching me all the traditional remedies to cure colds and feel better. I am so glad you met my kids and they got to know you and have you in their hearts. I love you and miss you, even though we had so much time, it still doesn't feel like enough.
