“ I don't even know what to say. I know loosing you has been awful and a nightmare. There really is soo much that I loved about you. But I just really loved our bond. I really could tell you everything and anything and you were just not the type of person to judge. And for people who judged you, you didn't care. You kept being you, laughing and having a good time. Your sense of humor and your laugh when I would tell you about something timothy did. Ehh.. You were my best friend. Your someone you just can't find in anyone else. You made your mistakes like everyone else has, but I loved you no matter what. Thank you for always being there when I needed you and for always having my back. I miss you like crazy. I'm so used to hearing my phone a couple times a day and me calling you. Its been extremely hard trying to adjust. You got as excited as me when it came to telling you about the babies. But I'm so glad I let you pick Madison's name. I lost a really really big piece of my heart sense you've left, I don't think it will ever be the same. But I'm going to do the best I can because I know you would want me to make sure I'm here for these babies. You were my best friend. My other half. I love you soo much and you will never be forgotten. I think about you all the time and I will always have you with us. Those babies will always know who grandma was. I miss you a ton. Watch over us momma.
I love you.

“ I still can't believe your gone my mother-law! And I can't believe Mark is gone too! I got to spend time with these two, 2weeks before y'all left us! I'm glad I got to spend time with y'all, even tho that was the first time I met Mark! He was a cool dude, I bullshitted with him, he tried to see why my power outlet didn't have power. I wish my mother-law got to see my babies grow, she love them babies!! I Love You Patrece Patrick, gone but won't be forgotten <3
