“ Iris was a wonderful human being who loved others unconditionally. She never knew hate, resentment or grudges. She only knew love ,friendship and giving to who ever ask her for a need. She was like an innocent little girl living in a grown up body. Always ready to forgive if anyone offended her and always ready to say she was sorry if she disappointed anyone. Many times she would do nice things like share her dinner or treat you to a dinner as she would say "I have money, i can do it!" Then say, " Don't worry, I can get more money!" With a big smile she would " See, you like what I did for you? "Because we sitters see!" I loved that she was always ready to help wether it was help prep the meat for dinner, chip in for a gift for someone. She was always ready to help. She use to love to go to the park but only if we would help by pushing her on walker that had a seat because her legs would get tired. She always loved her entire family and friends and wished she could see them all like she did years ago when Mom was with us. She collected pictures of all the family babies and even people she befriended through out her life. She loved collecting tiny toys, dolls, coloring books witch she love to do. She would color pages in the coloring books and give them away to the special people in her life. She enjoyed and was very amazing at it, doing big 1000 pcs. Puzzles with Gloria and Ismael. They did many puzzles together. Iris, Gloria and Ismael went to their first cruise vacation together and it was like an adventure for all three. Iris loved it and enjoyed looking at the picture Album Anita put together for them. I will forever be grateful for having a pure hearted sister like Iris. I will never forget all the nice things she did for everyone she knew. I will forever miss her. I am just sorry she had to suffer for so long before she went home. Even though I know she is in the hands of Jesus it was hard to see her in those conditions because she didn't have the ability to explian to the Doctors or any of us the pain she was going through and when Doctors tried to explain to her, her condition she could not comprehend. In Heaven there is no more handicap, no more pain, she is whole and that's the focus. She remains in my heart with good memories of her giving heart. I miss you Iris, and will always love you! Until we meet again in the future, in Heaven with our precious Lord!! XO In Jesus name, Amen!

“ Titi,

You will be truly missed, thanks for being such a loving and wonderful person. I know that you are with Jesus and with grandma, grandpa and my dad. I'm sure they were waiting for you with open arms. I'm thankful for the times we had and the memories that we've shared together. I LOVE YOU DEARLY!!!

*The battle you fought was long and hard,
But it's okay auntie let go and let God.*

*It has hurt all of us when you left that day,
It left me broken hearted with nothing to say.
I don't want to be selfish say please don't leave,
Because I did not want to hurt or grieve.*

*I know in my heart you are in a better place,
But I swear I'm going to miss your beautiful face.
I am going to miss the talks we would have,
And the stories I would tell that would make you laugh.*

*God just needed you to come home,
Yes we know it has made your family sore.
You will always be remembered every single day,
From the smile on your face to the things you would say.*

YOU WILL NEVER BE FORGOTTEN
*Love Always,
Your Niece Amanda*

“ Our deepest sympathies to the Perez family. From Rachel & Johnny Torres

"Life is but a stopping place, A pause in what's to be, A resting place along the road, to sweet eternity. We all have different journeys. Different paths along the way, We all were meant to learn some things, but never meant to stay...Our destination is a place, Far greater than we know. For some the journey's quicker, For some the journey's slow. And when the journey finally ends, We'll claim a great reward, And find an everlasting peace, Together with the Lord."
