“ I just found out about the passing of one beautiful soul who happened upon my life during one of the worst times of my life. Pat reached out to me and gave me a lot of beautiful words of wisdom that I carry to this day. One terrible day during my divorce I became severely ill to where I ended up in the hospital with a severe kidney infection. She was kind and trusting enough to give me her phone number (and I gave her mine) in case I needed to talk to her. Of course I told her I'd never call unless it was an emergency, and being in the ICU certainly constituted an emergency. I called her crying because I was scared, because I was alone, and because I didn't know what was going on. Pat calmed me down and shared with me some of the responses from our online support group which made me feel so much better. I will never ever forget your loving way, the calming words you always had at the drop of a hat, and for being our group's "mom." Your life and legacy will live on, and rest in deep peace with your Lord!

*Pat, I love you!

“ Pat, even though you moved to Hollywood Studies some time ago, I still remember when you were here with us in Fantasyland. They changed Castle Cortour from Tinkerbells and put that big uncomfortable Kings chair at the side door. When you would walk by you would move it from the wall where is was knocking plaster off and say I keep telling maintenance about that and they do nothing. I remember e-mailing you to tell you they finally did fix it. After that each time I passed that chair I thought of you and I will always continue to think of you. Rest in Peace

“ I will miss you Patty. I will never forget staying with you in the summer, going to your house for Christmas and driving home in a blizzard. I remember when you got married, that was fun. When Tom and Lisa were born, your camper in Geneva, picnics at my house, the trips on the house boat, going to grandma's in Indiana. Lots of good time. I will always remember you, you will never be forgotten, love you sis!
