“ Thank you for always making it out to our little trips and visits to our home. Your presence was always welcoming and I was always humbled by your eagerness to make sure you held down the fort and have dinner ready for everyone to enjoy some family time. Your voice rains throughout our home and in our minds every time we do something we know you would laugh at and have a saying for. Your body is no longer with us, but your soul and memory remains in our hearts and I know you are watching us from Heaven and still helping hold down the fort. Love you Papa Bear
