“ My sincere and deepest condolences to the family. While I don't have too many memories of Mr. Rebollo, I hold one very special. Mr. Rebollo made the best ice-pops in Hallandale. He made sure to save a few for Alicia and I when we got out of school. Full of knowledge and advise. May he rest in peace.

“ I am so proud of your strength. You are a true definition of a warrior. You have loved me without limits, you have been the best dad ever and i will forever remember and cherish all of our times together. Thank you dad for being the best you can be thank you for showing me what true love feels like. I have so many memories I can't just pick one. I am just blessed and honored to have been walked down the aisle with you by my side. I will always keep your memory alive daddy!
