Dear Peter,

Although you lived for a short while in Toronto, Canada around 1980, we became friends then and remained so for years. I had been trying to locate and contact you for some time now and am shocked and very saddened to find your short obituary now eight months later. Such a loss. I had wanted to visit you in Florida for years and of course kept putting it off until another time, and now ... never. You were an influence in my younger life and you will not be forgotten. I am very sad.

Condolences to your family and loved ones.
