

Robert H. Coyle

October 14, 1952 - April 27, 2021

Robert H. Coyle, 68, of Orlando, Florida, passed away with family by his side on April 27, 2021. Bob was born in Spokane, Washington, on October 14, 1952. After graduating high school at Shadle Park, he attended college, studying architectural drafting. Bob also joined the Marine Corps, where he served honorably. After serving in the military, he worked in construction, building and remodeling homes with his father. In 1978 he met his wife Susan, with marriage one year later. Bob began a career working for Kaiser Aluminum, where he remained until the plant shut down in 2000, then he continued working in construction, building his own home in north Spokane, and then building homes full time as a general contractor after Kaiser closed. Bob was an avid outdoorsman who loved hunting, RVing, snowmobiling, skiing, travel, and playing recreational hockey. He and Susan loved attending Spokane Chiefs hockey games with their son Shane, and were season ticket holders. In 2015

Bob and his family moved to Orlando where he and Susan wanted to retire, to the year round warm climate, and also for the Disney Parks which were his favorite place to go. Bob was a kind and gentle soul, who loved all animals, especially his dogs, who were always an important part of his life. He leaves behind his beloved furbabies Bella, Molly, Ricky Martin, Luna and Jack.

Robert is survived by his mother Edythe Coyle, his wife, Susan M. Coyle, son Shane M. Coyle (Khris Robinson), daughter Shannon Thornton, granddaughters Kaylee Fuller and Jordan Hawotte, great grandchildren Paige and Hayden Fuller, his sister Gloria Fletcher (Seth Fletcher), and brother, David Coyle.

Tribute Wall

DA

“ Bob will be and already is missed by many. His gentle soul and demeanor made everyone who came in contact with him feel welcome and cared for. Bob, you were one in a million. Rest in peace, friend.

Darlene Oliver Sherry

---

Darlene - May 11, 2021 at 06:19 PM