

Robert Gene Schmalenberger

October 25, 1957 - April 11, 2020

Robert Gene Schmalenberger Sr.-age 62 of Orlando, Florida passed away in his home unexpectedly. He was disabled, but before he became disabled 13 years ago, he enjoyed his job as a transporter of vehicles. He loved his children, grandchildren, great grandchildren and race cars. He was preceded in death by father, Clarence Schmalenberger; mother, Bertha Silva; brother, Eddie Schmalenberger; and wife; Nora Schmalenberger (Hill).

He is survived by brother, Chico Shirk-Schmalenberger; his step-son, Anthony (Carol) Hill; son, Robbie Schmalenberger; his daughter, Rachel (Jason) Eubanks; as well as eight grandchildren, Samantha, Chyanne, Nathan, Kara, Jayden, Cayden, Austin and Jackson. Three great-grandchildren, Riley, Brayden and Sawyer. His nieces, Brittnee & Amber; Nephews, Brian, Curtis, James, and Paul. Several close friends and many other family members.

Tribute Wall

Rachel Eubanks

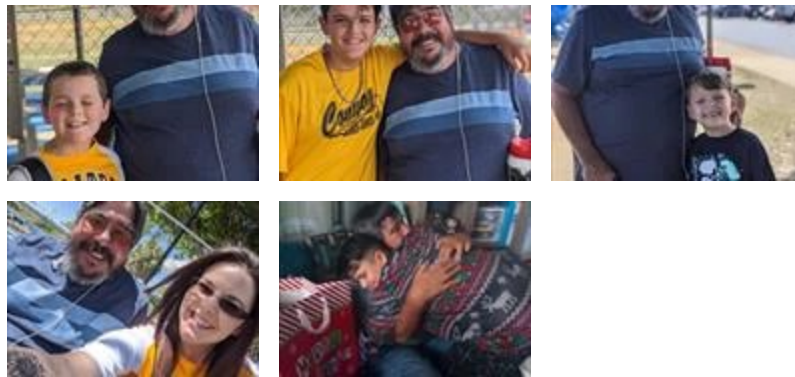

“ 2 files added to the tribute wall

Rachel Eubanks - April 17, 2020 at 07:32 PM

Rachel Eubanks

“ 11 files added to the tribute wall

Rachel Eubanks - April 14, 2020 at 12:30 PM

DS

“ Robert and I were close and so much alike, I could share things with him, hurts, loves and friendship, even though we had much distance between us! He loved my dad and my mom dearly and they loved him! We shared great memories! I love my cousin! RIP!

Dolores J. Silva - April 13, 2020 at 08:13 PM

Rachel Eubanks

Thank you for sharing ❤️

Rachel Eubanks - April 13, 2020 at 08:23 PM