“ Roger was the best son a parent could ever ask for. He had a heart of gold and would do anything for anyone, any where and at any time. He was my first born child and my best friend in life. We had a bond that nothing could have ever broken. He would often tell me he didn't know what he would do without me, and now I have to somehow figure out what I am going to do without him. I love him with all my heart and I'm going to miss him every day for the rest of my life. I can only take solace in knowing that his three years of pain and suffering is over and now he is at peace with the Lord. I know he will looking down on me for the rest of my life, keeping an eye on me. I love you son, and this is not "goodbye", but rather "goodnight". God bless you and keep you safe in his arms. Love You Forever.....Dad.
