“ Thank you dad for being my dad. I remember you were a very loving father. I have many pleasant memories of us together. I will miss your hugs with the little pat on my back. I will reunite with you in heaven. I'll see you there. Love your son Ryan

“ I have a memory of when my brother, Ronny was 6 and I was 10. It was winter and a very cold day with a couple inches of snow on the ground. We were walking in the field near our house by the creek. All of a sudden Ron yelled out "Bill". As I looked back I saw him floating in the creek. Thank God mom had put him in a one piece snowsuit. I ran back to him and found a long branch and told him to grab it. I pulled Ronny back to the creek bank to safety. I think the snow suit kept him afloat. That was one scary incident. Love you and will miss you Ron. Billy

“ I will always remember Ronnie with a big smile. Every time I saw him he would make me laugh. I know his smile must be the biggest smile now that he is with his Lord and Savior.

“ Ronnie loved his music. He would be at home and my phone would ring, he was playing a song from the 50s or 60s. I had to guess the song and the artist. Made me look back. Fond memories. I will miss him
