Savannah was a bright young vibrant young lady with a kind soul and a beautiful smile she will be deeply missed. Any time i had the pleasure of her company i always left with a smile. She was. Like my family. She was family when something tragic happens it affects us all because we know we won't see them anymore. But the angels gone before will be there to greet her. Fly high babygirl i love you and i will never forget you. Tell Uncle Bob i said i love him. I know he used to love buying Girl Scout cookies
