“ Sharon had a heart of gold and was pleasant, generous, calm, and honest. She had an immense love and gratitude for God. She always knew how to light up a crowd and bring joy and laughter. To know her is to love her. She is truly missed by MANY, but she is most definitely in a better life and place now. Joined by one of her daughters, father, and many, many other loved ones gone before her. Woots up, hoes down! I love you, you complete me!
