

Steven Charles Barr

September 28, 1950 - July 5, 2021

Steven Charles Barr, born September 28th 1950, passed beyond the veil on July 5th, 2021, after a valiant and courageous battle with metastatic thymic cancer.

Steven was a kind-hearted man who highly valued integrity and ideas. He was a true Renaissance man who loved learning about and trying new things and exchanging ideas about the world and politics in spirited discussion. He had the heart of an artist, and spent his life expressing himself through music – he'd often sit for hours playing his guitar, studying the greats like Hendrix and Stevie Ray Vaughn. He was hard-working, diligent, and devoted to detail. Everything Steven decided to do in life, he did with his whole self, including loving those who were precious to him. He was a pillar we leaned upon and a rock that was our foundation and supported us. He was a mentor, a friend, and a confidant. His kindness, passion and wisdom will be missed by all of us who were lucky enough to have him in our lives. We have truly lost one of the Greats.

Steven was predeceased by his parents, Mary (Perry) and Dennis C. Barr Sr., and a brother, William Bradford "Brad" Barr.

Steven is survived by his loving wife of more than 20 years, Claudia Barr; his daughter, Michele (Jeffrey) Abrams, his granddaughter Sophia Grace Barr and his grandson, Ari Killian Abrams; his sister, Singleton "Sigie" (Reginald) Barr-Sapp, and his brothers, Dennis (Lillie) Barr Jr. and Shane Barr Sr., as well as many beloved nieces, nephews, cousins and dear friends.

Steven requested no formal services. In lieu of flowers, the family asks that donations be made in his name to the American Cancer Society, so that maybe with time, we will be able to eradicate this horrible disease.
