“ Tim, I dont event know where to begin, but my heart is still heavy, and it is hard to believe you are no longer with us. As the song says "Born to amuse, to inspire, to delight, here one day gone one night. Like a sunset dying with the rising of the moon, "Gone too Soon." God is to wise to make a mistake, and I trust that whatever His will was, that you are resting at peace and you will be forever missed my "brother."

“ My name is Ernesto Gonzalez. I had the privilege to work for Mr. Taylor for almost 5 years. To me he was a great boss someone who asked you how was your weekend or what's new in your life or how the family is doing. I really don't have words to express how I feel about you not being here anymore. I saw you Tuesday for the last time and I was glad to see you. I never thought it will be the last time. I appreciate everything you did for me. I will miss you.

“ Hi Tim, we worked side by side for over 3years and now you're gone. I feel as if my balance has been thrown off since you left us. You told me on the Monday before that I had to prepare myself because you didn't see yourself "being here passed this week" but I thought you were just doing your usual, "I'm quitting for the zillionth time speech.. You did warn me but it still hurts. But I do know that you are now free from the pain you had day in and day out. You are and will continue to be missed from your Adventhealth home. Love, Millie

“ My heart is broken. 💔 I only wish we could have spent more time together living so far apart is something I always regretted. My whole family we always lived so far away . Still no excuse, I'm so glad we all got together one last time for the reunion. I thank God for that. Rest now, little brother in peace free from pain. Makes my heart feel better knowing you are with so many of our loved ones, Dad, Mom, Zoe, Sheryl, Nick. Hope they have Captain Crunch there. 😊 I will always love you. You will forever be with me Timmy RIP
