“ My brother from another mother Vadim. There are lots of memories of us from childhood friendship to adulthood. We would talk an dream about cars we would love to build we could talk for hours. My favorite memories is when I finally finished building my car with his help with turbocharging my car, well when I finally got it tune I had picked him up the next day right after work we had cleaned my car an went out for a joyride well we pulled out an ran into a v8 Lexus that was spraying nos well we let him have it lol the turbo spooled up an we started pulling away puting about 2 cars between us lol, we had turned at the next light an the Lexus had followed ha ha ha we went at it again but this time we had a long strait road infront of us needless to say we put about 4 cars between us an Vadim looks at the mph gauge an we was going 135 mph with adrenalin pumimping we had pulled off at the next gas station to clam down we couldn't beleave the car we had been working on for years was this fast an looking so good we had did it we was at the top of the world that day! Vadim I'm going to miss you brother our long talks times we would chill an play racing video games going shooting we had a blast !! The next mustang or Camaro I beat will be for you homie !!! I'll see you soon brother godspeed

“ From Autocross to the Dragstrip, Street Races to the Pool hall, Vadim was all in. He lived life. Great energy, driven, big hearted. Our "Lil Brother" was a handful. He will be missed. We will carry on his spirit.
